Personality development

To instill Social skills:

- Greet with a smile when someone visits your house.
- Speak politely and share with peers.
- Pay attention to elders when they are giving instructions.

Independent Me

Children are born with natural curiosity and inquisitiveness about the world around them. It is important for us to help them keep this spark alive and to make learning fun.

HERE ARE SOME ACTIVITIES GIVEN TO HELP YOUR CHILD BECOME INDEPENDENT AND CONFIDENT.

Filling the water bottles

Put on your socks and shoes

Buttoning and unbuttoning

Keep the room clean and well-organized by keeping things in their proper place

FINE MOTOR SKILLS ACTIVITIES

(For strengthening the hand muscles)

- Sorting Activity- Let your child sort different kinds of pulses according to their colors and shapes, eg, give your child the task of sorting chick peas (channe) and kidney beans (rajma)
- Pouring activity – Let your child learn to pour water from one glass to another.
- Squeezing Activity – Instruct your child to dip the sponge into water and squeeze the water from the sponge into a separate container.
- Threading and beading activity – Assist your child in making a beautiful necklace through threading and beading.

NOTE- Click the pictures of your child while doing the above activities. Capture the moments in a small ‘Summer Memory scrapbook’
